POLITICAL MISCELLANY.

LEVEN POWELL, ESQ. has offered as a Representative of the Counties of Loudoun and Fauquier, at the approaching Election of PRESIDENT and VICE PRESIDENT of the United States. The occasion produced a Circular Letter to the Freeholders of the District, from which the following is an extract.

AFTER what has been said, it may seem unnecessary to declare that GEORGE WASHINGTON is the man of my choice as President; and as Vice-President, to act with him, I now believe I should give my vote to JOHN ADAMS. These men have both been tried in their respective offices—we have prospered under their management, and I feel no wish to make experiments. But reports have lately circulated that General WASHINGTON has declared his determination to retire from public life; should this unfortunately be the case, the question is, who shall succeed him? This, indeed, is a nice question, and involves several considerations. 'Till very lately we have only heard of Mr. JEFFERSON and Mr. ADAMS as certain Candidates for the Presidency, and of both these there have been some reports, which, if well founded, would make me reluctantly vote for either, to fill this important post. Whether these have proceeded from party spirit, ought, and no doubt will, be the subject of enquiry.

It is now said Mr. PATRICK HENRY, of Virginia, and Mr. PINCKNEY, of South-Carolina, will both be on the nomination—Should it be so, I must declare that I feel at present disposed to vote for Mr. HENRY. This gentleman was at first much opposed to the general government; but, I believe, after amendments were obtained, he became reconciled to it; for we have not heard of his joining in the cry of the present opposition against every measure of the government, as has been commonly the case with those who were opposed to the ratification of the Constitution; but, on the contrary, his late declarations condemning, in the strongest terms, the violent measures pursued in the last Congress, shew that he is a friend to peace, order and good government. A strong reason for the appointment of Mr. HENRY is, that it may have a tendency to unite all parties, and do away that spirit of contention which at present rages with so much violence amongst us, and threatens the destruction of the Union. I am not sufficiently acquainted with Mr. PINCKNEY to say more of him than that his character is respectable, is a friend to government, and that he was the negotiator of the treaty with Spain, which is considered a very advantageous one to us. I still, however, entertain hopes that the same love for his country, which has hitherto induced the President to sacrifice all private considerations to the public good, will lead him to continue in office, at least 'till the establishment of peace in Europe; for until that takes place, I conceive all his firmness and good judgment are requisite to keep us clear of their destructive contests. If, however, he should determine to retire, and you should give me a vote in the choice of a successor, I shall consider it my duty to weigh well the characters of the different Candidates, and, to the best of my judgment, give the preference to that man who will be most likely to preserve the peace and happiness of our country and the government under which we live. These shall be my first considerations, and, in my determination, public opinion shall have its due weight.

FOR THE MIRROR.

Mr. PRICE,

I have been an inhatant in this city for three years, and cannot but remark with pleasure the rapid improvement of it in that time, particularly the paving of the Streets, which, I hope, will be followed by lighting them, and the establishment of a Watch, composed of the Citizens; the utility of which, in comparison to hired Watchmen, will appear obvious; but still there is a great deal to be done. I will only instance the following at present: The painting of the names of the Streets on the corners of the Squares and Alleys, and numbering Houses. The expense would be trifling, and the advantage considerable, particularly to strangers. It would be proper to change the names of the Streets, which have a relation to the old System. King, Queen, Prince, Duke and Royal Streets, seem more calculated for the Meridian of London than the City of Alexandria, in the Territory of Columbia—But this I leave to our worthy Magistrates to decide upon, and the propriety of publishing this, or any future communication to you, from

NED CARELESS.

Alexandria, September 7, 1796.

FROM THE BALTIMORE TELEGRAPH.

MESSRS. PRINTERS,

A writer in your paper of the 1st inst. under the signature of "AN AMERICAN," has cast an infamous reflection on the humanity of the first magistrate in the Union, by observing that he has been informed, "that even the slaves belonging to the "first magistrate in the union, are so "badly fed and cloathed, that some "of his plantations, instead of appearing to belong to a great and good "man, as he is supposed to be, have "more the appearance of (if I may be "allowed the term) a purgatory."

To those who have visited the plantations or farms of the President, the falsehood of the above observation must be evident—but as few may have had an opportunity of doing this, it becomes necessary to assure those who may see this calumniator's assertion, that no blacks in the United States are treated with more attention and humanity, than those belonging to the President. Their food and cloathing are such as to prevent complaint, even from the blacks themselves—the humane attention paid to them in sickness, is such as to do credit to the great man; and no undue severity is exercised towards them with his knowledge or permission. For upwards of twenty years past, the President has given up the cultivation of tobacco on his estate, and pursued a system of farming which is highly calculated to give ease and plenty to the labourer, as well as to benefit his country.

I shall not attempt to answer this writer's remarks on holding the negroes in bondage: but will only observe that if he will point out any rational mode by which this unhappy race can at once be liberated without injury or even ruin to themselves and society, the President will be the first to listen to his plan.

It was natural to expect that in his public character the President would be attacked and even calumniated, as the firmness and independence of sentiment which this great man has ever exhibited would certainly bring upon him the reprobation of many wicked and designing men; but the meanness of this writer in endeavoring to wound him in a point which has no relation to his official conduct can only be approved of by those who are as base as himself.

AN ENEMY TO CALUMNY.

September 2, 1796.

☞ The writer of the above has left his name with the Printers, to satisfy those who may wish to know if he has sufficient knowledge of the President's private affairs, to warrant the assertions he has made.

INTERESTING OBSERVATIONS.

It appears that the crops of Grain, in many parts of Europe, and of the United States, have been very great. It is therefore possible, that the prices in our markets may become so low, as to render it a public advantage, that the attention of the farmers and distillers should have been called by anticipation to the manufactory of grain spirits. Fruit also proves abundant in many parts of this country.

It will be seen by the following list of the Philadelphia prices, as well of foreign materials for distillation, as of domestic and foreign spirits, that there is a great prospect of benefit to the farmers, from awakening their attention to this subject.

Allowing for the increased duty, French molasses is advanced upon the price of 1774, full two prices. It was worth then about one sixth of a dollar in the Philadelphia market. The continuance of devastation and military operations in the sugar colonies, with the recent emancipation of the French Negroes, and the effects of the measure in the other West-India settlements, cannot fail to keep down the quantity of molasses made, as well as that of rum. Sugar will be dear from the same causes, and therefore more molasses will be used to SWEETEN, and taken from distillation.

The prices of the different kinds of foreign spirits also merit attention.—Rum of the ordinary proof sells now for nearly three times its value in 1774, after allowing for the present duty.—Brandy too is much advanced, from the great consumption in Europe, and because the cultivators of the vine have led to the raising of grain, potatoes. &c. by the extraordinary prices of 1794, 1795, and the beginning of 1796. The continuance of the war in Europe must render brandies and grain spirits of that country high.

It may be useful and acceptable to the farmers thus to take occasion to suggest to them that the prices of their grain may be kept from too great a fall by a judicious and regular manufactory of domestic spirits and beer, and the prices of molasses and foreign liquors will afford ground to extend these observations to the distillers, to whom they may prove both useful and agreeable.

The mutability of political resolution is remarkably exemplified in the following royal ordinance of his Sicilian majesty published on the 17th May and treaty concluded on the 5th June.

"This long protracted war, which has brought calamity on so many nations, and occasioned the effusion of so much blood and tears, is not merely a political, it is a religious war. Our enemies are enemies of Christianity and Christendom. Not content with having abolished religion in their own country, they wish to extirpate it from the earth.

"Religion, which teaches us our duties, must likewise inspire us with courage. We fight against those who have made war, at once on our property, our laws, and our religion. I will myself give the most conspicuous example of courage and zeal in so good a cause. I will place myself at the head of my loving subjects for our common defence, in full confidence of the protection of the King of kings, and Lord of lords, who guides the hearts of Princes, and enlightens them with prudent counsel, when they call, in sincerity, on his holy name. Yet will I omit no human means to secure the [illegible] tranquility of the people [illegible] my government. Yet [illegible] prepared for every event. [illegible] negociate for peace, but with [illegible] our hands, that we may not be compelled to accept mean and humiliating conditions. Send me, therefore, your support to this useful end, and require your diocesians to afford their assistance to me and my troops to repulse the enemy, should they attempt to enter our frontiers.

(Signed) "FERDINAND."

This was professedly intended to secure a general arming of the people, and even the Lazzaroni were said to have been inspired with the spirit of patriotism and heroic resistance.

LONDON JULY 9.

MR. WHITBREADS' WILL.

The following are some of the principal heads of Mr. Whitbread's Will, and of those who are benefited by it:

To his son, Samuel Whitbread, Esq. he has bequeathed the whole of his freehold estates together with all the brewery concerns, except a part to his daughter the wife of Mr. Grey, which was secured to her in her marriage settlement. To his son-in-law, James Gordon, Esq. to his nephew, Jacob Whitbread and John Wingate Jennings, Esqrs. he has bequeathed 5000l. each; also 10,000l. being the amount of three bonds given by Lord St. John his son-in-law, to whom he left 1000l. the amount of another bond, also given by him.

To his three head clerks, Mr. Saggster, Mr. Yellowly, and Mr. Green, he has left 500l. each, who are all trustees for the management of the brewery. To Mr. Harman, his private clerk, 500l. To his butler, 100l. and to every servant throughout his concerns, including clerk domesticks, draymen, and every other description, he has left a token of his regard, besides various sums from 100l. to 10l in annuities, to old servants, and widows of servants. He also made a clause in his will, which sets forth, that should his clerks, Mr. Green, Mr. Yallowly, and Mr. Sangster, at any time be desirous, of purchasing a share in the brewery concerns, his son shall accede to the proposal, and give them credit for any sum they may want for that purpose, on their own bonds, not exceeding 100,000l.

To the different hospitals in the metropolis and elsewhere, he has bequeathed upwards of 15,000l. among which are St. Bartholomews, Bethelhem, Lying-in, St. George's, Small-Pox, and St. Luke's. To the Charity School (a boy's and girl's.) 500l. each, in the parish of St. Luke; also to the repairing of the goal at Bedford, 300l. and towards the building of an infirmary at the above place, 4000l. more. The many lagacies left to old acquaintances, friends, rectors; curates, and tenants, and distant relations, are incredible.

HALIFAX, JUNE 25.

We have been favored with the following by a respectable house in this town:

INFORMATION FOR MARINERS.

In lat. 39, long. 46, 10, W. from London, lays a shoal or rock—at low water about 10 feet above the surface, and about 60 fathoms in circumference.

It has been seen by many, but some gentlemen in the year 1789, in Newfound land, informed me, in their voyage from Lisbon to St. John's they were upon it, and near being lost. It was in the month of September that year, when it happened them.

This rock or shoal was seen in December last by Capt. Stewart, of the brig Jenny of Derry, in his voyage from Antigua home.—Almost all the French and Dutch charts lay it down, but it is in very few of the English.

The rocks and ſhoals laid down in the charts of theſe iſlands are without foundation, except the Formigas near to the iſland of Santa Maria, and the Feiras off the harbour of Angra, Iſland of Terceira, but they both ſhew themſelves at three leagues off, there is water for a firſt rate man of war within 20 fathoms of either of them.

Capt. Stewart of the Jenny was ſo near the ſhoal before mentioned, he was obliged to hoiſt out his boats and tow his veſſel off, as it fell calm when near it, and a current running ſtrong towards it. Wm. GREAVES,

Alexandria, September 8.

The Hon. David Howell, Eſq. Commiſſioner, and the Hon. James Sullivan, Eſq. Agent on the part of the United States, for aſcertaining the St. Croix boundary, are ſafe arrived at Halifax.

Lord Dorcheſter and family, mentioned in our laſt to have been wrecked in the ſhip Active, on the iſland off Anticoſti, are arrived at Halifax. The officers and crew of the ſhip were alſo ſaved.

It is reported that cents of baſe metal have been imported into the United States, from Great-Britain, and are circulating in the country.

Extract of a letter from Martinique, July 23, to a gentleman in St. Croix.

"Gen. Abercrombie ſailed for England in the Arethuſa frigate, but reports ſay, on his ſtopping at Dominique, he received orders by a Packet from England, which had juſt arrived there, to remain on his ſtation; and he is expected to return back to-morrow.—They are hanging white people at Grenada, from 14 to 26 per day, who were concerned in Fiddon's rebellious army. Some Engliſhmen are among them, but they are principally Frenchmen of great fortunes."

FROM THE WEST-INDIES.

BOSTON, AUGUST 30.

FROM GUADALOUPE.

We hear that in conſequence of the miſconduct of an American Captain, who, after engaging his whole cargo to government, ſold it to individuals—the government there has declared, that no veſſels ſhall be permitted to an entry at any other ports but thoſe of Bay Mahot, Point Petre, and Port Louis. And as ſoon as they arrive at either of theſe places, a guard is put on board, that continues with the veſſel till all the proviſions are out of her.

FROM JEREMIE.

Capt. Topliff from Jeremie, informs, that the French and Brigands were attacking Jeremie when he ſailed. It was his opinion they would ſoon be maſters of the whole Iſland.

FROM PORT-AU-PRINCE.

It is very ſickly at this place. The fleet is collecting at the Mole; it is not known for what purpoſe.

PROVIDENCE AUGUST 27.

FROM THE MOLE.

By a gentleman of undoubted veracity from Cape Nichola Mole, we are informed, that 117 Britiſh officers died there from the 2d to the 17th ult. and that the mortality among the troops has been proportionally great.

A letter from a Britiſh officer of dragoons at the Mole mentions, that of the reginent to which he belongs, only three officers beſide himſelf ſurvive.

FROM HISPANIOLA.

On Tueſday arrived the ſloop Sally, capt. Tongue, in 18 days from Hiſpaniola. In paſſing Atwood's Key, a boat came on board him, belonging to the brig Lucy of Baltimore, which was wrecked the 11th of July. The ſchooner Peggy of Baltimore, was alſo wrecked the 16th of July. Both veſſels belonged to the ſame owners, Meſſrs. Samuel and John Smith.

On the 11th inſt. in lat. 28, 45, long. 73, 22, ſpoke the ſloop Apomatuck, capt. Tucket, from St. Thomas bound to N. Carolina. She had been intentionally run down by the Britiſh frigate Amiable, and received conſiderable damage.

NEW-YORK, SEPT. 1

FROM CAPE FRANCOIS.

By the arrival of the brig Two Siſters, Richard Jefferey, maſter, from Cape Francois in 11 days, we receive the following information.

Every kind of proviſions were in great plenty at the Cape, Fort Dauphin, Port de Paix, &c. Flour was ſelling for ten dollars, with the proſpect of its falling ſoon to eight, as the public ſtores were filled up with no leſs than 25,000 barrels.

The Britiſh had made no progreſs in any part of the Iſland, but their forces were ſo much reduced at the Mole, by an epidemical diſorer, that they could hardly man three of their ſhips. Two thirds of their land troops had already periſhed, and the remainder were dying very faſt, from 20 to 30 in a day.

An account was received of the capture of Tortola Iſland by two French frigates, La Maduſa and Inſurgente, with 300 land troops; it was reported that after taking ſeveral Engliſh ſail richly laden, and deſtined to join the Jamaica convoy, they ſunk a few privateers, deſtroyed the town, and were daily expected with their prizes at the Cape.

NORFOLK SEPT. 3.

FROM PORT-AU-PRINCE.

Captain Southwick, of the ſchooner Ranging Polly, arrived here yeſterday from Port-au-Prince in 16 days, informs, that flour ſold as low as 12 dollars per barrel, pork and beef at 15 and 16 dollars per barrel, and every other kind of proviſions equally cheap—that the Britiſh troops were very ſickly, 80 and 100 dying in the 24 hours—a veſſel from New York had loſt the Captain and the whole of the crew by the contagion; and every veſſel was loſing ſome of their crew—that the French privateers continued their depredations on our trade, by ſeizing our ſhipping and carrying them into Le gane, where they were certain of being condemned.

BOSTON, AUGUST 30.

By a brig which arrived on Sunday in 46 days from Gibraltar, we learn that the Emperor of Morocco has iſſued orders for the capture of all veſſels bound to the ports poſſeſſed by his revolted brother, under the appellation of enemy's ports. Under theſe orders, a Dane, a Swede, a Portugueſe, and an American have been taken. The latter was the brig Emmerline, Prentiſs, of Boſton: ſhe was bound to Soſſia. The former veſſels were cleared, in conſideration of their ſailing previous to the general promulgation of the orders. The American conſul at Gibraltar was trying to get the Emmerline releaſed, and it is thought would ſucceed.

NEW-YORK, SEPTEMBER 2.

Arrived Ship Eliza, (prize)* from Iſle of May.

*BITE THE BITER.

This is the diſmaſted ſhip Eliza, mentioned to have arrived at the Hook: ſhe was a prize to the Thetis Britiſh frigate, taken on her paſſage from the Iſle of May, commanded by Captain HUSSEY, an American ſhip, built at Charleſton, cargo belonging wholly to to the Captain, of Nantucket. She was taken off Virginia, by the Britiſh frigate Thetis, Capt. COCHRAN, and ſent for Halifax, to be adjudicated according to treaty, with prize maſter and crew from on board the Prevoyante, Captain Huſſey remaining on board; but having been diſmaſted in a gale, put into the Hook to refit——AND under the influence of ſome fatality or other, ſhe ſailed up to town laſt evening! It is ſaid the Capt. having been indulged to come on ſhore, went down yeſterday morning, in company with about a dozen yankeys and took poſſeſſion of her AS HIS PROPERTY. There is a midſhipman (Lord COCHRAN, nephew to Capt. Cochran) on board; and the trick, at the whig club, is called BITE THE BITER!

SEPTEMBER 3.

Mr. M'Lean—Pleaſe to publiſh the following in your Gazette.

Having ſeen an anonymous piece in yeſterday's Argus, entitled "Bite the Biter," wherein it was ſaid that the ſhip Eliza had been a prize to the Thetis, Britiſh frigate, and that ſince the accident of loſing her ſpars, ſhe had been captured by about a dozen Yankeys! In anſwer to which, I think proper to ſtate the following facts:—Being boarded within three miles of Cape Henry, by the above frigate, and a prize-maſter put on board, who not knowing well how to proceed, he, by ſome fatality or other, got within Sandy Hook, where, meeting with no oppoſition from the crew, I took poſſeſſion of my own ſhip, and brought her ſafe to this port; in the performance of which, no violence was uſed by any perſon on board.

Ten Dollars Reward.

SEDUCED from my employ on Tuesday night the 21st day of June last, a negro woman slave named HANNAH, by Will Goddard, who resides in this town, the property of Benjamin Dulancy, Esq. The above named slave is about 30 years of age, 4 feet 9 or 10 inches high, stout made, round faced, and full eyes—when closely questioned, stammers a little in her speech, and is easily surprized—took with her sundry good cloathing; one black hat, a new scarlet cloak, two callicoe suits, one or two oznaburg do. one blue twilled cloth jacket lined through with oznaburg, a new pair of leather shoes, two pair of white cotton stockings, marked H. I am led to believe that the said Goddard has furnished her with a pass and aided her in getting to Baltimore. All persons are forwarned from employing or harboring the said slave at their peril. Any person securing the said slave in any goal, or delivering her to me in Alexandria, shall receive the above reward, and if brought home reasonable expences will be allowed GEORGE SLACUM.

A VERY VALUABLE MERCHANT MILL, A DISTILLERY AND BREWERY, AND SUNDRY STONE QUARRIES TO BE LET.

I WILL rent my Merchant Mill at the Little Falls of Potowmac, for any term, not less than seven, or more than eleven years, from the first day of September next. The Mill house is 42 by 40 feet, three stories high, built with stone, and has in it 3 pair of French burr stons, two overshot 18 feet water wheels, and Evans's machinery complete, with every other thing proper and necessary for carrying on the business with dispatch, and at as little expence as possible, all in good order.—From the mill to my landing on the Potomac river, (where crafts of any burthen may deliver grain, and take in flour) it is about 40 yards, and from thence by water to George-Town and the City of Washington, about three miles, and to Alexandria about 11 miles. This situation aided by a sufficient capital, will command the produce of a very extensive back country, where large quantities of wheat and other grain is annually made, the distance to it being from 8 to 10 miles less, than to any market town upon the navigation of the Potowmack. There are on the premisses a large stone Cooper's shop, a stone granery and a commodious Miller's house. At the landing aforesaid a bridge is now building over the Potomac, which is in great forwardness and probably will be finished the ensuing Fall.

There are also on the premises a Brewery and Distillery built with stone, in them are three stills, two coppers or boilers, with every necessary article, all new, and in good order, and sufficiently large to carry on the Brewery and Distillery, upon a very extensive plan. This property I will rent for the same term of years.

Upon my lands adjoining the premises, and along the banks of the river, where craft may load with ease and dispatch, is an immense quantity of building and foundation stones, four quarries are now open, and as many more may be opened with ease, the stone taken from these quarries is better, and has the preference at this market, to any other stone brought to it. I will rent these quarries seperately or together as may best suit.

Upon the top of the hill, and about 200 yards from the Mill is a stone Dwelling house, large enough for the accommodation of a family, also, a kitchen, Dairy, smoke house, &c. and a garden enclosed, and in cultivation, the soil of which is equal in goodness to any in this state. I will also rent this property.

Adjoining to the Brewery and Distillery is a Smith's shop in which is a complete set of Blacksmith's tools, which I will also rent, and if agreeable I will hire to the tenant two negro blacksmiths, one of them is a complete workman.

If I rent out the stone quarries, I will sell three crafts which were built for the purpose of carrying stone. They will altogether bring upwards of 90 perch. Immediate possession will be given, for terms apply to the subscriber in this town.

The Mill, Brewery and Distillery with their appurtenances will be delivered to the tenant or tenants in good repair, and must be so returned, at the expiration of the lease or leases.

This tract contains thirteen hundred and twenty seven acres, is well timbered, the soil of an excellent quality for farming, and has a large proportion of fine meadow ground. There is a never failing stream of water running thro' the land with a good mill seat on it. It is clear of all incumbrances, and an indisputeable title will be made to the purchaser, who, by paying a part of the purchase money in hand, may have a long credit, and easy payments, for the ballance, for terms apply to Col. THE subscriber being duly authorised will receive proposals for the purchase of the valuable real Estate in this town, late the property of Gen. Walter Stewart, deceased. It consists of a large front on West Landing, containing 210½ feet, with a first and second part of Frog Land before the same, on which are built convenient wharves, &c. Part of these premises run through to Fall's street, having a front thereon of 62 feet, the remainder have different but considerable depths. On this estate are sundry small stone, brick & frame houses, all under rent, together with a most capital brick mansion-house and stores, 57 feet by 40 exclusive of the kitchen and other back buildings, erected but a very few years since, now in the occupation of Mr. Adam Murray Stewart; adjoining is another building begun and carried up nearly to the first story. As an extensive credit may be had for a part of the purchase money, it is expected no gentleman will come forward without offering a price suitable to the value of this property, which in every view, and particularly as a stand for business is not excelled by any in the town. Ten Dollars Reward

RAN AWAY last Saturday night, negro JACK, a light yellow fellow, thirty four or five years of age, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high. He is a truncky, well set fellow, large boney face, down look, and has lost the small toe of one of his feet, I think the left. He has with him a variety of good clothing, among which is a brown cloth coat, a striped red cloth waistcoat, boots, &c. He made his escape in company with a white girl, with whom it is said he has cohabited for some time past. She is a stout, likely young woman, about 17 or 18 years of age, is of a yellowish complexion and has dark hair. She is of respectable parentage, but is unhappily far advanced with child by said fellow as I am informed. As said girl can probably write, she may perhaps give said fellow a pass; at any rate he will endeavor to pass for a free man, under cover of this unfortunate and abandoned young woman. They had with them a sorrel horse about ten years old, 13½ hands high, and has too remarkable bumps between his ears—they may perhaps pick up another. For securing said fellow so that I get him again, I will give the above reward, and if brought home, a further reward proportionate to the trouble and expence.

of land upon a credit of twelve months, lying about a mile above Leeds town, upon Rappahannock, River, on Tuesday 20th day of September next. The place was the residence of the late John Washington, Esq. known by the name of Liberty. The soil is very fertile, particularly for the production of Indian Corn, and profitable crops of small grain have been made upon it; very extensive marshes are near, and the place itself affords such improveable meadow ground that the proprietors may keep very large stock of all kind. There is on this plantation a good dwelling house with four rooms on the lower floor and two above, and out houses, and it abounds with fine springs.
